Walthamstow, E17 4EY

Wednesday 18th March 2015
4pm - 6pm
Refreshments and networking @ 5pm

Guestnote Speaker:
Tom Bennett

A Behaviour Guru, writer for the TES, Director of ResearchEd and nominated for the Global Teacher Prize!

Come and join us. Learn something new, be amazed, amused and enthused!

TeachMeet is the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) event organised by teachers, for teachers.

Come along and hear stories about learning, from teachers. This is not an event to present about a product or theory – it is real narratives of practice that make a difference. TeachMeet is about networking and being engaged and inspired by our colleagues!

We have been highly fortunate to secure a prestigious key note speaker!! Tom Bennett

Want to get involved?

You can take part in TeachMeet by either presenting or coming along to hear lots of interesting stories. You can talk about anything that has inspired you, has worked well in class, a tool, a strategy, or a topic.

Sign Up!

Come along to chat, meet new people as an enthusiastic listener, or give a three, five or seven minute presentation. If you would like to be part of TeachMeet, register your details by
